October 29, 2019 Chicago- "I'm a Worshipper"- the much-anticipated debut solo EP from contemporary urban gospel musician Bobby Lewis- will be available for pre-order on Friday, October 26 on all major streaming platforms. Percy Bady, award-winning music producer and musician, produced the EP for Entertainment One (EOne) and Indie Blu Distribution.

Lewis will perform at a record release celebration next Friday, November 8, at JW James AME Church, 907 S. 6th Ave. (at Madison), in Maywood, Ill. The event is free and begins at 7:30pm.

Lewis personifies the shining example of a joyful worshipper with his refreshing new flavor of contemporary urban gospel, which will have listeners moving and praising to the beat. Music lovers know him as a mega-talented vocalist and percussionist, carrying on the vibrant legacy of his father, legendary jazz pianist Ramsey Lewis, Jr.

"This music is my 'thank you' card to God, a heartfelt shout of gratitude," says Bobby Lewis. "With "I'm a Worshipper", I pray that God will use this music to move every listener further into His presence. Even more, I pray that all who hear the songs will be blessed and will in turn share that joy with others. And I'm incredibly honored to work with Percy Bady, one of the best producers in the business."

Bady added: "When I first heard Bobby's music, the first thing I heard was his heart- his heart for God & his desire for people to know God! Then I heard the lyrics and melody and felt like I had encountered God all over again! I believe this EP points our focus back to the One we worship and sing about, GOD! From our up-tempo, rhythmic grooves to melodic, gentle ballads, Bobby brings fellow worshippers with him on an awesome musical journey of praising God."

A native Chicagoan, Lewis studied music in high school at the Chicago Academy for the Arts. He then attended the University of Miami School of Music before moving to Los Angeles to work as a professional drummer. He and his wife Crystal are active members at J.W. James A.M.E church in Maywood, Ill., where Rev. Garry S. Mitchell serves as Pastor.

With just one listen, you will hear how Bobby Lewis exemplifies his family tradition of musical and ministerial excellence.
